

Learning Objectives

1. Participants will learn what is meant by the term gift-based volunteering.
2. Participants will practice utilizing language comfortable for their particular faith community, to introduce and foster ideas of serving out of one's gifts.
3. Participants will be introduced to gift-based tools which help in several key areas of volunteer management.
4. Participants will explore practical methods for weaving the concept of gifts-based volunteering into their organization.
5. Participants will discuss how the concept of gift-based volunteering contributes to spiritual growth in members of their organizations.